Re: CSC v. Armstrong

Dear Ms. Dragojevic,

I am in receipt of your letter dated November 8, 1984 regarding your client's alleged missing briefcase. I do not understand why you wrote to me. My client has no knowledge regarding this alleged stolen briefcase and documents. Isn't it ironic that Gerry, found to be a thief of documents, now has the audacity to intimate that my client might be involved in a theft of his documents?

It appears that Gerry was visiting the FBI or IRS. Since they are well known for their "break-ins," black-bag jobs" and other such activities, maybe you should write them one of your insipid letters. They were thought to be breaking into autos at the Church and of Church members earlier this year. When this was brought to their attention the auto "break-ins" stopped immediately.

I find your letter disturbing. I had hoped that there was someone at your office who had the good sense not to believe every ridiculous and unsupported and weird claim dreamed up by Gerry or Mike Flynn. It seems as if I was wrong and there is no rational clear thinking point of control. It reminds me of the saying about "the inmates are running the asylum."

I suppose if Gerry goes down to Wimpy Burger and gets ptomaine, you will write us a letter accusing us of poisoning him. I hope Gerry has good tires on his car; heaven forbid he should get a flat tire or you will write another letter claiming harassment. Paranoia seems to know no bounds. Gimme a break! Be serious and get professional. By the way, did he file a police report? If so, either provide me a copy or let me know where it was filed.

If Gerry is so "terrified" by the Church, why was he cruising around the Church? Is he harassing the Church?
